

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

PRIVILEGES

1. Receipt of all papers relating to the Society's Annual General Meeting (AGM). Requests to attend the AGM and (on occasion) to attend the Board of Trustees Meetings (but not to vote) will be welcomed and approved where possible.
2. The right for your Society's members to attend to the biennial Conference.
3. The right of Chief Executives/Secretaries of Agricultural Societies to take part in the Chief Executive's Seminar coinciding with biennial Conferences.
4. Access to the society's secretariat at any time, as for Full Members.
5. Receipt of two copies of the Conference Report and of the Society's Newsletter, Annual Report and other publications and papers.

OBLIGATIONS

1. The wide dissemination of all relevant papers and reports of this Society to the Member Society's Council, Officers and leading members.
2. Publicising the work of the RASC both in the Member Society, to other leading Agricultural Societies in the state/province, to Ministries and related NGOs and to educational and research establishments.
3. The payment of the annual subscription resolved on by the Board of Trustees.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

These are decided upon annually for the calendar year by the Board of Trustees.